

Subj: House of Prose Newsletter 7th August 2014

Fellow book-lovers:

Welcome to another newsletter from House of Prose. For your information during the past week we have received 907 new books in all of our locations. We have also donated another 2000 books this past Tuesday to charity from the two House of Prose locations. We say charity, but a company named Transguard comes every other week and takes away any books our clients have requested be passed on to charity. Transguard is a security guard company with thousands of employees. For the past year they have been collecting our books and making libraries in the labour camps of their employees. Because of the large amounts of books we have given them, they are now also installing libraries into the labour camps of their clients!!

We have decided to hold a drawing in each newsletter for one of our bundle book packages (package of 3 books) to be given away as a gift. we have bundle books on display at each location. The winner this week is lbt. So congratulations lbt and please give us a call and let us know when and where you want to choose the bundle which best suits your taste in books.

Below, please find a sampling of just a few of the 907 books we have received this week which we feel represents a cross-section of the various types of books we sell.

If you are interested in any of the books listed, just call us at our Jumeirah branch at (04) 344-9021; Dubai Garden Centre branch at (04)340-0006, ext. 308; Ace branch at Festival City (Book&Bean) at (04)232-6992; and our Yas Island branch (Book&Bean) at (02)565-1323. Leave your name and we will hold it for you. Also, remember we are computerized so we can look up any book you are searching for in all our inventories – with just one phone call. If no requests for books by the weekend, they go on the shelves for sale to the general public.

Speaking of cross-section, we would like everyone to know we are always on the lookout for children's books, particular toddler books; meaning picture books, storybooks and little floppy story books small children really enjoy. Also what I call chewables – cardboard books babies enjoy holding. Something else we can't get enough of are adult fiction talking books, or stories on CD. I love listening to them in the car and feel many people haven't experienced the joy of a well-produced talking book. So please bring yours in and I will give you as much as I can for them – in cash, of course.

We hope by sending you this informative letter on a regular basis, you will find it beneficial. If not, and you really don't want to be on our list of preferred customers, please let us know and we will take you off our mailing list right away.

We have again attached a trailer of a new movie made from a best selling book. This week we have selected 'A most Wanted Man' by John LeCarre – also in stock at this time, if interested.

Again, in closing, Thank you for supporting House of Prose, either financially, in person, or in spirit only. We really are here to serve you by getting the right book to the right person at a great price – nothing more, nothing less, nothing else!
